

1250 Weiss St., Frankenmuth, MI 48734 - 989-652-8005
www.michigansmilitarymuseum.com

Michigan's Military & Space Heroes Museum (MMSHM) is a one of a kind destination. Our mission is to Honor, Respect and Remember the memories of Michigan men and women who heeded the summons to military service during America's times of need.

Michigan's Military & Space Heroes Museum contains:

- Over 150 displays containing the personal stories of Michigan service men and women
- Over 600 personal collections and thousands of unique artifacts that are rotated on a regular basis
- The nation's largest public display of Medals of Honor, with 28 of them currently on display
- Displays on Michigan's space pioneers and astronauts
- WWI "Polar Bear" Regiment displays (The only Americans to ever fight Russians on Russian Soil)
- MMSHM is a Not For Profit 501(c)(3)

Come see why our recent visitors' comments include:
"Amazing", "Humbling", "Excellent", "Respectful", and "Thank You"

OPEN EVERYDAY - 10 a.m. - 5 p.m.